Pros

- Smart Money Hedgers established a new multi-year Long position on the 12th June 2018
- Trading at 3% above its 200-period daily moving average
- Trend line support and Demand Zone in play
- Small speculators are net short (short to medium term)

Cons

- Lower swing highs from mid-June
- Possible Head & Shoulders pattern forming from mid-May

Reports

Shortly after the Smart Money Hedgers established a new multi-year long position on the DOW (DJIA), trend line support held inside the demand zone giving confirmation of a likely turning point which came to light on the 5th July

2018. We suggest entering a Long position at 2740.0. Place a Stop Loss at 2690.0 and a Target for profit-taking at 2880.0. Time Frame for this trade = Short to Medium-term (3 to 12 weeks)

NOTE: This particular trade set-up was intended for the short to medium term (3 to 12 weeks). It lasted 7 weeks before reaching our target, generating an 8% gain.
